Gaels Rank in the Top 20 Nationwide

"This is a great time to be at Saint Mary's," said Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Mike Matoso in a letter to the SMC community. Saint Mary's Athletics has two teams ranked among the Top 20 in the nation. The CBS Sports map above showcases the Gaels as the top team in California, and men's soccer continues an impressive two-year run dominating on the turf. Matoso encourages the campus community to come out to support SMC athletics, as this could be a very special year for the Gaels. Read More

Saint Mary's Releases 2018–19 Annual Report

The 2018–19 Annual Report is now online. The institutional retrospective highlights significant achievements throughout the past fiscal year. The report includes updates on philanthropic giving; the College's financial health; an overview of academic innovations, distinctions, and faculty accomplishments; and a message from President James Donahue about the College's ongoing commitment to our students and the legacy of our Founder, Saint John Baptist de La Salle. In conjunction with SMC Theatre's fall production, This is Modern Art, the SMC Museum of Art will feature the Five Elements of Hip Hop on Friday, Nov. 8, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Community artists and students will perform break-dancing, DJing, rapping, and graffiti tagging. Check it out:

- 5:30 p.m. Rapping by Michael Singletary ('21) and John Huez; DJ Lex in the museum courtyard.
- 6 p.m. Playwright Kevin Coval engages in conversation with Davey D, a Bay Area DJ and hip-hop journalist/scholar.
- 6:45 p.m. Hip-hop dancing with Traci Bartlow and guests; DJ Lex and graffiti tagging demo with DJ Agana in the courtyard. Learn More

View - Madness 2019

Women's basketball forward Finau Tonga '23 brought the moves to Friday's Madness, performing for the crowd during the men's vs. women's lip sync battle. The women's basketball team dominated the dance portion of the competition and ultimately won lip sync battle bragging rights. Afterward, students competed in a variety of competitions to win coveted prizes like a pair of air pods, a TV, and an electric scooter.
